Topics Discussed:

Working on the coding

Decisions Made:

This eleventh week, the work towards achieving our goals continues. As from the last week, working on the code is the main focus to create the desired product. The tasks assigned from the previous week are still valid and each member will be working on the respective part of the code.

Time, Place, and Agenda for Next Meeting:

This was the last meeting for this project and as for the rest, everything will be checked and put together prior to the last week, when the presentation will be held.
